

Ms. Narjess Saidane
UNDP Deputy Special Representative of the Administrator

Civil Status: Married and has two children

Languages: English, French, Arabic and Portuguese

Ms. Narjess Saidane has joined the United Nations Development Programme/Programme of Assistance to the Palestinian People (UNDP/PAPP) as Deputy Special Representative of the Administrator in September 2013.

Narjess comes to PAPP from a Deputy Resident Representative (Programme and Operations) of the joint UNDP, UNFPA and UNICEF office in Cape Verde (2010-2013). Prior to that, she was DRR (P/O) in Mauretania (2006-2010) and Tunisia (2004-2006). She also served two years with BRSP (nor BERA) as a resource mobilisation adviser (2002-2004). In prior capacities she worked in Ramallah as Project Manager for decentralised cooperation from France (1995-1997), as adviser for the Palestinian Council for Higher Education (1994-1995) and for Birzeit University (1993-1994).

Narjess has degrees in political science and urban planning from the US and France.